Hey all- I changed the responses below because it appears that the original responses from you all were pulled from an old rollout/QA doc. I've attached the final messaging/QA doc. Let me know if you have any questions.

Cathy is also adding the CPSC and CDC contacts

Cathy

Furthermore, I would like to learn more about the studies that have been conducted on crumb rubber, and what they measure and how they measure it.

Finally, I would like to know how experts evaluate other synthetic alternatives that are starting to be used, such as rice husk, coconut fiber and cork
